

Activity: Design your own tube feet

For this activity do some research on what sea stars and sea urchins look like on the bottom. Using the two outlines provided, draw what you think your own urchin or sea star would look like. How would it get around?

