Job Title: Graphic Designer

Status: Full Time

Classification: Non-Exempt

Reports to: Director of Communications

Description

Reporting to the Director of Communications, this part-time position provides cross-departmental creative support by producing graphic art and visual content for a variety of mediums, including, but not limited to, promotions, advertisements, online media, exhibit interpretation, infographics, collateral, and other communications-related materials.

Essential Responsibilities:

- Use computer design software to produce design elements and layouts for both internal and external communications
- Graphically communicate the Aquarium's mission, vision, core values, and interpretive priorities
- Maintain brand standards and emulate existing aesthetics where appropriate
- Develop concepts from brainstorm phase to finished product, working with stakeholders to receive feedback and make appropriate edits
- Meet with project stakeholders to understand their vision for the project and target audience
- Create or incorporate illustrations, pictures, and designs to achieve the project's desired theme and tone
- Review art for errors and informational accuracy to ensure a clean final product
- Coordinate with outside vendors (printers, creative agencies, etc.) where appropriate
- Create a workflow for managing project requests, active projects, and important deadlines
- Follow industry trends and technological advancements and apply knowledge to design practice

Requested Requirements:

- Associates degree in graphic arts or design-related field, or advertising/marketing with demonstrated mastery of design-related skills, or equivalent experience.
- Demonstrated knowledge of computer design software including the Adobe Creative Suite (Photoshop, Illustrator, In Design, After Effects)
- Proficient knowledge of Microsoft Suite (Word, PowerPoint, Excel)
- Strong verbal and written communication skills
- Knowledge of accessibility standards and Section 508 compliance
- Knowledge of both digital and print design standards and requirements, as well as typography, color theory, and layouts
- Ability to manage multiple projects simultaneously while meeting tight deadlines
- Ability to be adaptable, flexible, and responsive to feedback with excellent attention to detail

Working Conditions:

- Sedentary – Position involves long periods of sitting and lifting no more than 10 pounds at a time.
- Position is based primarily on-site in a shared office/workspace; remote work opportunities are available with supervisor's approval.
