Swamp and The City

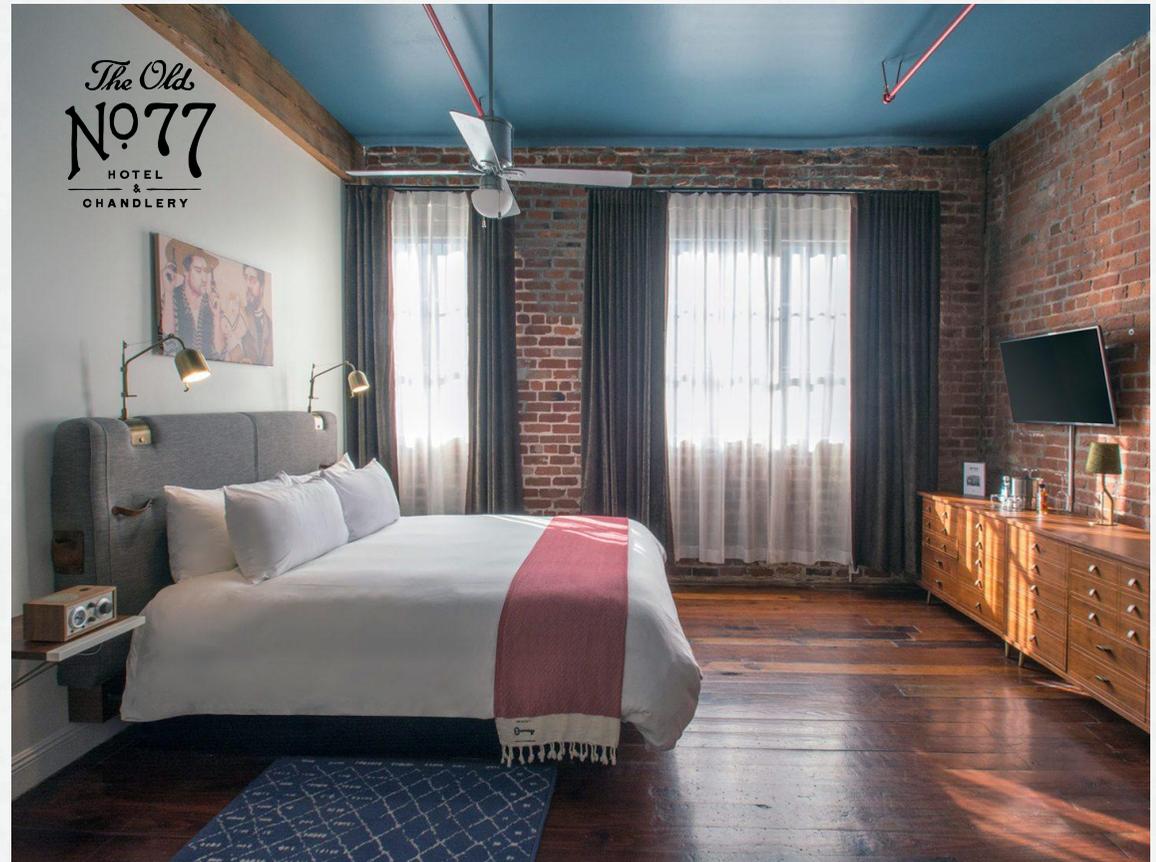

Experience New Orleans and the Beautiful Bayou

Day One

Check in at the Old No. 77 Hotel. Located just four blocks from the French Quarter in the Warehouse Arts District, the hotel has become a gateway to the cultural epicenter of the city steps away from some of city's busiest galleries. Housed in former coffee warehouse form the 1800s, the hotel puts a modern spin on its historic roots found through playful design, curated Chandlery of local artisanal goods and a rotating art gallery.

Take in the city following your own impulses or have the Old No. 77 team guide you. Spend an afternoon strolling the Garden District and the galleries of Magazine Street. Or head to city park to tour the 80+ sculptures at Sydney and Walda Besthoff Sculpture Garden outside of the New Orleans Museum of Art. In the evening, consider the famed Maple Leaf and Frenchman Street for live jazz.

Day Two

You decide whether to get up early or sleep in after a long night. Let us know and we'll arrange an 8am or 11am pickup for a pleasant drive out of the city where you'll board a two-hour swamp tour with Beyond the Bayou, an eco-friendly swamp tour company.

Comfortable padded seating and a maximum group size of six ensures that you can properly relax, avoid the crowds, and ask all the questions you want. They provide a truly educational tour that leaves you with a deeper understanding of what makes the ecosystems here so unique.

The Pearl River is a protected wildlife area, and it's famous for being the most biodiverse region in Louisiana. Keep your eyes peeled for gators, wild boar, great blue herons, osprey, owls, snakes, and turtles. Birdwatchers love this tour; there are tons of woodpeckers, raptors, and migratory songbirds that live out here. We'll drive you back to New Orleans by van at the end of the tour.
