FAQ Page

Tips and best practices

- Consider breaking the content into sections based on questions in the same category.
- Use photos and other design elements to break up the page.
- Write questions in first-person (from the perspective of the customer).
- Keep answers short and to the point.
- Include a “book now” button on the page.

The Booking Experience

Activity page updates

- Summarize important information at the top of the page: Duration, transportation, what to bring and wear, inclusions, etc.
- Consider making a smaller FAQ drop-down per activity page if there are a lot of questions to cover.
- Review for outdated information like dates or locations you no longer visit.
- Do not remove seasonal tour pages.

sells!

The Booking Experience

Optimize the activity description

- Start with the highlights of the tour.
- Content should be scannable, using headings, bullet points, and short paragraphs.

booking flow

The Booking Experience

Make it easy for customers to book

- Is the booking flow easy to follow?
- Customers should find what they're looking for within 1 or 2 clicks.
- Set your online booking cutoff as close to your activity start time as possible.
