DAY 2, Elephant Orphanage, Giraffe Centre, and Kazuri Bead Factory

Depart after breakfast and visit the Kazuri Bead Factory. The factory began in 1975 with a focus of providing work experience for women. Here they make African jewelry out of clay taken from Mt. Kenya. Lifetime Adventures has arranged for you to spend time with the workers and gain an understanding of "life in Kenya". From Kazuri we travel to the Giraffe Centre, where you will have an opportunity to hand feed a Rothschild Giraffe from an elevated platform. The endangered giraffe-breeding program began with the inception of the Giraffe Centre in 1979. An approximate 120 acres of land provide the giraffe a natural breeding area and the young calves born at the centre are introduced back into the wild at the age of 2 years. Hungry anyone? Enjoy your unique lunch experience at The Carnivore Restaurant. Wild game is roasted on traditional Maasai swords over an open-air fire and sliced for you at the table. After lunch spend time at the Daphne Sheldrick Elephant Orphanage where you will learn about the baby elephants; how and why they come to the orphanage, how they are raised to later be released into the wild, and how they get accepted by herds in the wild.

Optional: Visit the Largest Black Rhino Sanctuary, home of Baraka the blind Rhino. Baraka (meaning "blessings" in Swahili) was one of the first rhinos born in the open fields of the OI Pejeta Conservancy on November 20th, 1994, Black rhinos are very aggressive and will fight each other to protect their territories and unfortunately for Baraka, he was involved in a fight that caused an injury to one eye. This eye later developed an abscess that ruptured and had to be removed. Later, Baraka developed a crystallized cataract in his other eye, which, even after numerous attempts at finding a cure, eventually led him to become completely blind.

The single largest rhino translocation ever in East Africa was undertaken on February 3, 2007, resulting in 88 Rhinos at the OI Pejeta Conservancy. The translocation was a combined effort between OI Pejeta Conservancy, the Kenya Wildlife Service (KWS) and Lewa Wildlife Conservancy. Although there is no charge to visit Baraka, there is an additional charge of $30 USD* to view the Northern Africa White Rhinos housed at the Conservancy.
