

We are located just 10 minutes outside of the Incan town of Ollantaytambo on a mountainside in the community of Rumira.

- To get to the Zipline you will drive NE out of town on road 288. This is the road which begins at the market and Temple of the Sun.
- When you enter the community of Rumira, on road 288, you will see a small chapel on the right. Use this as a point of reference.
- Next you will pass two small alleys on the right-hand side, one paved, one is a dirt alley.
- Take the next paved road. You will see a sign for Ollantaytambo Lodge. Also you will see the local school on the left once you turn onto the road. There is no name to this road.
- Go up, then turn to the left on a dirt road and follow the dirt road up for several turns until you reach our platform where you will see Puma Path banners and the zip line.
- Parking is VERY limited. It is best to arrive here by taxi.

Please note that the little 3 wheel moto taxis may have a difficult time coming up the dirt road.

A taxi fare could be about 15 soles each way from Ollantaytambo.

Please plan to leave 45 minutes before your tour start time, from your hotel in Ollantaytambo, to allow for any delays in arriving. This will ensure that you arrive at least 15-20 minutes prior to your scheduled tour time to complete check-in.

Thank you and we look forward to welcoming you to The Puma Path Zipline!

- Note there are more actual turns on the blue road than shown on this map. This is a dirt road up the side of the mountain. You will see the zipline platform as you drive up.
