DRUMS of the Pacific LU'AU

Maui's most exciting lu'au!

Make cherished memories and immerse yourself in Polynesian culture at Maui's most exciting lu'au! Drums of the Pacific Lu'au has delighted Maui visitors for more than thirty years. Committed to our original vision, we continue to perform authentic songs, chants and dances from Hawai'i and neighboring Polynesian islands that have influenced Hawaiian life and customs for centuries. We share our gifts in hope that we may entertain, inspire and amaze visitors for many generations to come.

Delicious food and drink features the exotic flavors of native Polynesian cuisine. Watch as the kalua pig is unearthed from the imu, a traditional underground oven.

Experience songs, chants and dramatic dances from the islands of Polynesia:

OTE'A - Tahiti

The story of the ancient Hawaiian ancestors' journey navigating by the wind, stars, clouds and ocean currents.

RAROTONGA

The sound of the drums beat to the flying rhythm of the Tavake bird, known throughout the Pacific as being the bird that led our ancient navigators to new land.

KAHIKO - Ka'anapali, Maui

In ancient times, Maka'iwa, the name of the area where Sunset Terrace now sits, was governed by the owl goddess, Wahine Pe'e, who reunited lovers separated by battle.

APARIMA

The dances of the Tuamotus called the Aparima, celebrates the skills of the great fisherman, which were passed down through generations and transferred to Hawai'i through migration.

TIARE

The classic tale of romance from French Polynesia. The woman is compared to the sweet scented Tiare flower of Tahiti. Her purity of white and delicate slender hands are reminiscent of the Tahitian white gardenia.

TONGA

We celebrate the people of Tonga through the festive drums that brought the village together and signaled that a ceremony or celebration was about to begin.

HALEAKALA HULA - Maui

Utilizing the traditional ti leaf skirt called the la'i, and traditional Hawaiian implements called the pu'ili (split bamboo), our women perform a proud song named for Maui's great and majestic mountain peak, Haleakala.

MAORI - New Zealand

These Maori dances feature the whirling of the poi, an instrument used to improve dexterity and flexibility of the hands and the haka, the dance of challenge displaying courage and strength of the village men.

MAUI MOONLIGHT MEDLEY

Under the elegant Maui Moon, nostalgic hulas are performed in velvet holoku, a traditional dress of Hawaiian Monarchy, in tribute to this island of Aloha.

THREE-MAN FIRE KNIFE DANCE

Rooted in the traditional Samoan ailao, or battle dance, our warriors come forward twirling their battle knives in flames of fire. Known as the most dangerous dance in all of Polynesia, this spectacular three-man fire knife dance incorporates ancient battle moves using knives set ablaze.
