TOURISM PEMBERTON – PHOTOGRAPHY USAGE GUIDELINES

PLEASE NOTE: Unless otherwise stated, Tourism Pemberton has purchased licenses for these images for a fixed term. All images remain the property of the photographer; therefore the following guidelines must be agreed to before use.

The user(s) of this photo library must agree to:

- Refrain from re-selling the image(s) or using the image(s) for personal, retail or commercial purposes (i.e. cannot be used for postcards, books, calendars, proposals, private advertising, etc.). Any special requests must be directed to the photographer.
- Credit the photographer at all times and Tourism Pemberton whenever possible. If a photo credit is not included, use of the photo may be subject to a $200 usage fee by the photographer.
- Use the image(s) only in conjunction with editorial content directly related to Pemberton and area. (For example, a snowmobiling image may be used to promote snowmobiling in Pemberton, but not snowmobiling in general.)
- Discontinue use after which time the image expires (expiries are noted with each photo). This includes use in any printed materials, advertising, promotions, websites or email. Failure to do so may result in a charge from the photographer.

If you have any questions regarding these usage guidelines, please contact:
