An Old Standard B&O Recipe — Recipe #44

For one sandwich

3 slices of toast
2 lettuce leaves
mayonnaise, as needed
2 slices chicken breast, cooked
3 slices bacon, cooked
1 slice tomato

In making a club sandwich, use a nice piece of white meat breast of chicken. Put a lettuce leaf on a piece of toast, then a small portion a mayonnaise on the lettuce, 3 slices of medium bacon, approximately 7 1/2 inches long, cut in half on top of the chicken then a piece of toast. Place chicken on the lettuce leaf, then duplicate the second layer as you did the first layer, on top of the second layer a slice of tomato, with a small portion of mayonnaise and then top with a piece of toast. The sandwich to be put together with skewers and served.

Chef's Comments

To prevent bread used in sandwiches from becoming soggy, consider lightly buttering in inside of each slice before building the sandwich.
