Rediscover your hometown on these offbeat urban tours

Rock Junket Tour

Meet at the southwest corner of Third Ave. and East Ninth Street, Manhattan; (212) 696-6578; www.rockjunket.com; $20

Visit the famous CBGB's and many other East Village rock spots on this weekly walking tour, hosted by longtime rock scenester Bobby Pinn. See the site of the Old Bridge Theater on St. Mark's Place (now the Trash and Vaudeville store), where Yoko Ono hosted '60s happenings. Madonna's first New York City apartment building, at 234 E. Fourth St., between avenues A and B, is on the tour, along with the apartment building at 96 St. Mark's Place that was photographed for the cover of Led Zeppelin's "Physical Graffiti" album.

Zack Seckler

Pinn points out East Village rock 'n' roll sites — such as the tenements from Led Zeppelin's "Physical Graffiti" — on his Rock Junket Tour.
