

SEWARD
WILDERNESS COLLECTIVE

SEWARD FARMERS MARKET SURVEY RESULTS

99%

support a market in town.

83%

would shop at the market weekly.

A majority of people would shop on Saturdays and Sundays in the morning-afternoon.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What are the market goals?

We believe a market will: increase local food security, improve climate resilience, provide economic opportunities for locals, and strengthen our community.

What type of variety can I expect?

The market will support agricultural producers (produce, eggs, seafood, flowers, etc) as well as non-agricultural producers (baked goods, prepared foods, arts, crafts, etc).

Can I be a vendor?

Yes! Any small business, gardener, craftsperson, artist, or farmer in Alaska can apply to be a vendor.

Seward Strong
Vendors and Volunteers from Seward will be prioritized to lift up our community.

Price Points
Market will have a regenerative economy structure where vendors choose prices.

The Seward Farmers Market will be a community program hosted by Seward Wilderness Collective