Hello Clay Days Families,

Happy New Year! We hope you are doing well. Doug and I are very excited to tell you about our plans for February Vacation week. We are adding a 4-day week of Clay Days from Tuesday, February 21- Friday Feb. 24. The hours will be extended from 8:30 am until 3:30 pm. Lunch, drinks, and snacks will be provided. We are limiting the program to 30 children. We will have five adults including Doug and myself working with the children.

Unlike Clay Days (summer), this sign-up is for the entire 4-day program. We will not be offering daily sign ups. Children will be working on week-long projects. The price is $560. You may sign up at www.clayroom.com, click the Clay Days link and then navigate to February 21st. The link is now LIVE! (Unlike summer, we will not be walking to the playground so you do not need to worry about that check box in the registration.)

Below is the schedule for the week. In addition to the schedule, each child will have at least two sessions on the pottery wheel during the four days.
