

Supporting the Australian Defence Community

Australian Partners of Defence (APOD) is a members-only community serving those who have served. APOD provides a platform for businesses to give back to Defence families through benefits and discount offers.

Membership open to:

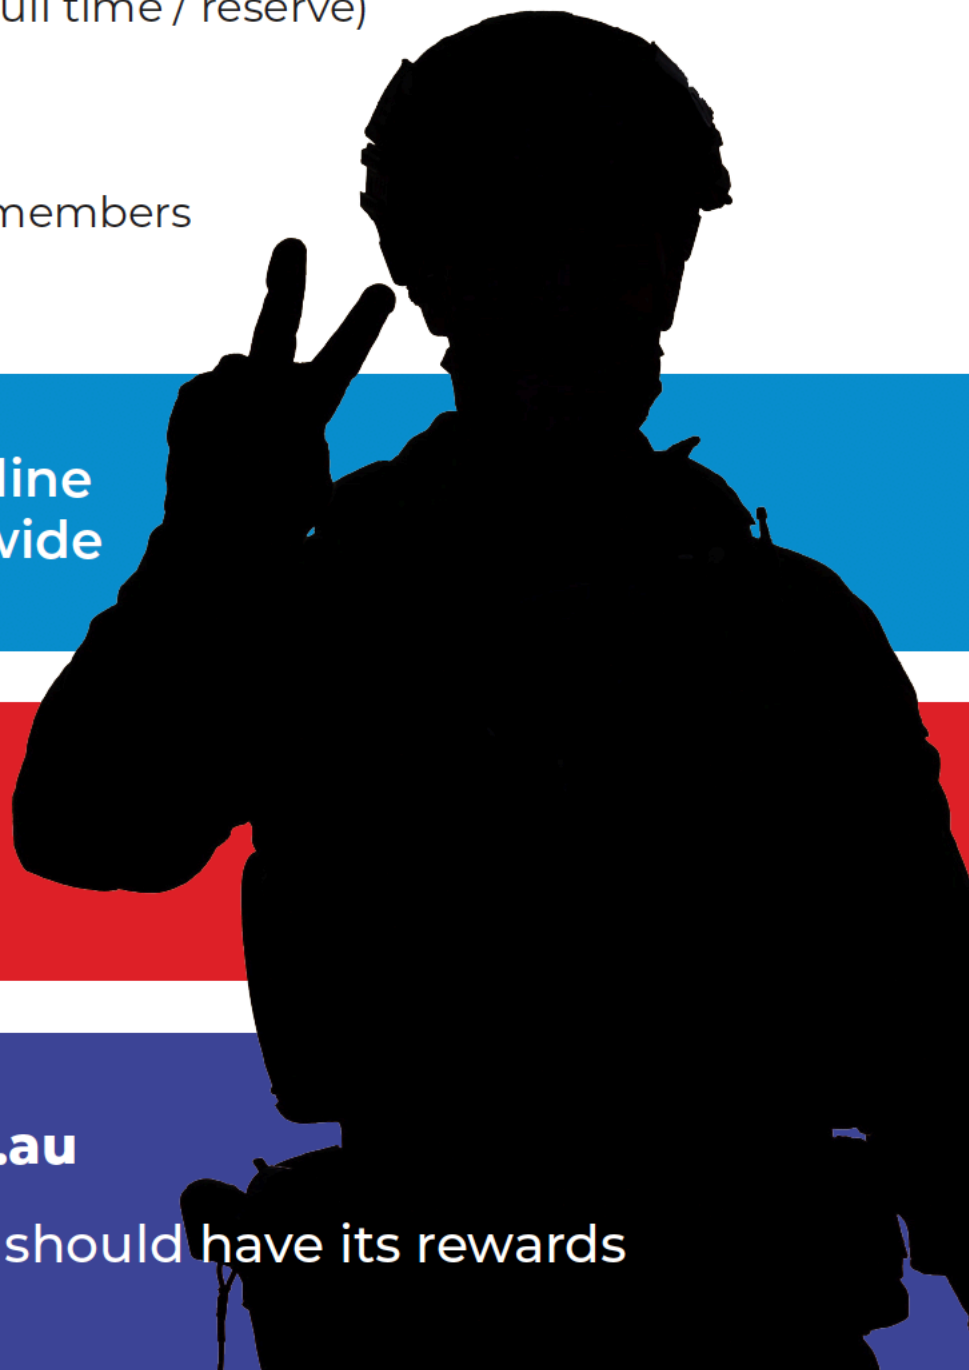

- current and former ADF personnel (full time / reserve)
- instructors and officers of cadets
- defence APS staff and contractors
- foreign military personnel
- war widow/ers and bereaved family members
- direct family members of the above
