

HISTORIC STRANAHAN HOUSE MUSEUM PRESENTS:
Virtual History Happy Hour

The Train, the Trail, and the Origins of South Florida Tourism

Support for this program is provided by the following:

Wednesday, April 21, 2021
6:30pm Via Zoom
$5 for Members, $10 for Non-Members

Register online at www.stranahanhouse.org/events
Advanced Registration Required.
Log-in access sent via email upon registration.
For more information, contact 954-524-4736 or education@stranahanhouse.org

PRESENTED BY Museum of the Everglades Curator Thomas Lockyear

Discover the fascinating tale of modern South Florida's beginnings. Learn about the building of South Florida's railways from industrialists like Henry Flagler and Barron Collier, as well as the wild story of the building of the Tamiami Trail, the first road through the Everglades.