Equal Opportunities and Diversity Policy What this policy covers

The Railway recognises the benefits of a diverse workforce and is committed to providing an environment that is free from discrimination.

The Railway will seek to promote the principles of equality and diversity in all its dealings with employees, volunteers, workers, job applicants, clients, customers, suppliers, contractors, recruitment agencies and the public.

All Volunteers are required to adhere to this policy when undertaking their duties or when representing the Railway in any other guise.

Your entitlements and responsibilities

Unlawful discrimination

Unlawful discrimination of any kind in the working environment will not be tolerated and the Railway will take all necessary action to prevent its occurrence.

Specifically, the Railway aims to ensure that no employee, volunteer or job applicant is subject to unlawful discrimination, either directly or indirectly, on the grounds of gender, race (including colour, nationality and ethnic origin), disability, sexual orientation, marital status, part-time status, age, religion or belief.

Equal opportunities practice is developing constantly as social attitudes and legislation change. The Railway will review all policies and implement necessary changes where these could improve equality of opportunity.

Procedure

Complaints of discrimination

The Railway will treat seriously all complaints of discrimination made by employees, volunteers, clients, customers, suppliers, contractors or other third parties and will take action where appropriate.

If you believe that you have been discriminated against, you are encouraged to raise the matter as soon as possible with a manager using the Railway's Grievance Procedure.

Allegations regarding potential breaches of this policy will be treated in confidence and investigated thoroughly. If you make an allegation of discrimination, the Railway is committed to ensuring that you are protected from victimisation, harassment or less favourable treatment. Any such incidents will be dealt with under the Railway's Disciplinary Procedures.

Investigating accusations of unlawful discrimination

If you are accused of unlawful discrimination, the Railway will investigate the matter fully.

During the course of the investigation, you will be given the opportunity to respond to the allegation and provide an explanation of your actions.

If the investigation concludes that the claim is false or malicious, the complainant may be subject to further actions.

If the investigation concludes that your actions amount to unlawful discrimination, you will be subject to formal actions and maybe asked to leave the railways as a Volunteer and your membership may be suspended.

Safeguarding of Children & Vulnerable Adults

The Railway is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and vulnerable adults and expects all staff (including volunteers) to share this commitment. Some roles are subject to an enhanced DBS Disclosure.
