Financial Verification

Financial verification of funds available to cover the training costs and related living and transportation expenses is required with your application. The estimated costs stated below are based on the minimum hourly requirements in the Robinson R22 per FAA regulation. This does not reflect an exact number of hours of completion, nor does Anthelion Helicopters guarantee an exact time or total hours of completion.

All documents submitted for financial verification must be accompanied by a notarized English translation denoting all funds in US Dollars. Acceptable forms of financial verification are:

- A notarized copy of a bank statement
- An approved loan application
- A notarized affidavit of support
