A Safe Experience

At Parkwood Outdoors Dolygaer we provide quality activity programmes that meet and exceed national and regulatory health and safety requirements, alongside our own high standards when it comes to providing both staff and facilities. Across everything we do, health and safety is our number one priority and our site is fully AALA accredited.

- Know more
- Our Instructors are the best in the industry, fully qualified, experienced and very enthusiastic! We ensure that each of our Instructors hold all applicable NGB qualifications in each of the fields they teach, along with public and employer's liability insurance, first aid qualifications and that they are all DBS checked. You won't find more qualified or more passionate instructors than ours!
- All of our activities are fully risk assessed and we can share these assessments with you prior to your stay with us. We are also more than happy to discuss any specific concerns you may have and accommodate any additional requirements you or your group has. We provide full safety equipment (as applicable) for each activity. Our number one aim is for everyone to fully enjoy the activities they try and we find one of the best ways to achieve this is to ensure that everyone is happy with the safety element before beginning.
- To find out more about our Health and Safety procedures or to speak to one of our experienced instructors, please get in touch.
