The Business Concept

We use modern, large scale equipment to re-create and enlarge those special childhood sandbox memories.

The DIG THIS® model delivers a unique, unforgettable experience to the customer and generates revenue through corporate training excursions, private parties, individual digs, retail sales, and sponsorships. Since 2011, the business model in Las Vegas has garnered so much attention that it created a market industry niche perfect for franchising.

The demographics are evenly split between men and women with an average age of 35. Sessions are sold as individual or group sessions for corporate events, training sessions, and personal social events such as parties or getaways. There is a participant minimum age of 8. New programs are being developed in 2018 to create a family experience for all ages.

The vision is to develop a national and global marketplace for the DIG THIS® operating model by delivering an unparalleled experience to the customer and establishing the brand as the leader in the marketplace of heavy equipment playgrounds.

To assist in the launch of a successful heavy equipment playground business, franchisees will have the opportunity to utilize the coaching, support, branding, and strategic alliances that DIG THIS® has developed since 2005.

As a DIG THIS® franchisee, you'll enjoy the benefits of being your own boss, while being supported by a dedicated franchise team that is committed to your long term success! Our franchise program gives you the opportunity to own a "one-of-a-kind" recreational experience!

DIG THIS® is America's first ever heavy equipment playground concept. This unique opportunity can be available to you for an affordable startup investment of only $75,000.

“As I clung to a hillside in a 20-ton excavator, something occurred to me: this was fun! And if I was having this much fun, wouldn't others? DIG THIS® was born.”

Ed Mumm, Founder and CEO

DIG THIS® is America's first ever heavy equipment playground where YOU'RE in control. Relive your childhood sandbox imaginary play days the way you always dreamed with a real earth mover! Huge Caterpillar bulldozers and excavators await you in one of your most memorable lifetime experiences.

By owning a DIG THIS® franchise, you'll be operating a one-of-a-kind business that no one else in your area has ever seen!

Dig This® was founded by New Zealand native Ed Mumm in Steamboat Springs, Colorado in 2007.

Why Choose a DIG THIS® Franchise?

DIG THIS® has been one of Las Vegas' top 5 attractions on TripAdvisor, the world's largest travel site, since October of 2012.

-Overall the system is very simple and structured in a way that can be replicated in an efficient manner.

It hasn't always been simply playing in the dirt. Along the way we've developed and refined activities for heavy equipment enthusiasts and models for corporate groups. We have taken seven years of research and development to ensure that your DIG THIS® franchise has the greatest opportunity for success!

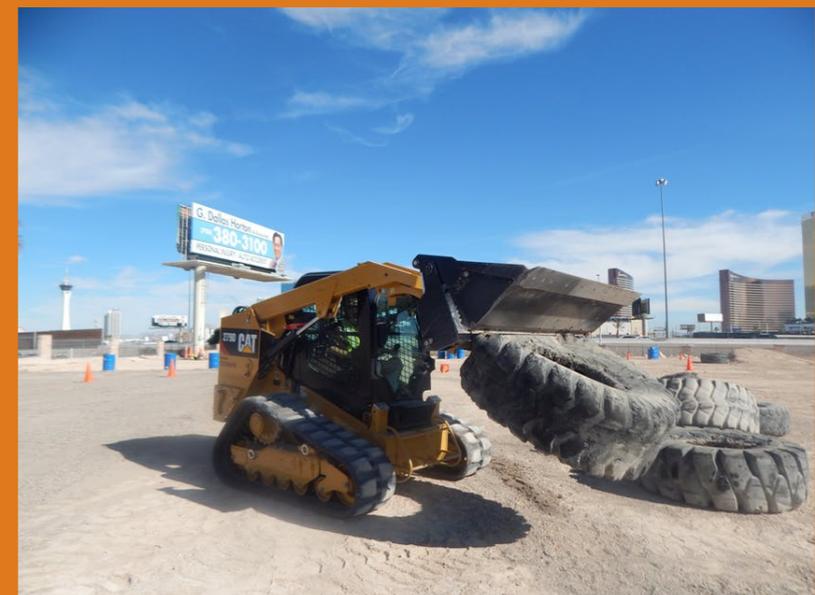

We continue to improve our business model at our flag ship location in Las Vegas. Since opening in May 2011, DIG THIS® had over 6000 extremely satisfied participants in our first year of business. In addition to a steady stream of happy customers, CBS Sunday Morning, CNN, The Travel Channel, and Spike TV have reported glowingly about getting down and dirty at DIG THIS®.

Now YOU can have to opportunity to operate a DIG THIS® franchise with the same proven popularity and profitability.

“Dig This has a great following but more importantly, we’ve brought a positive awareness to the construction trade, and our customers walk away with a first-hand appreciation for the work accomplished by the men and woman who engineer and operate heavy equipment for a living.”

Ed Mumm on being nominated Top 25 Newsmakers by Engineering News-Record (ENR)

“Felt like a kid again.....”

This was so much fun..... takes me back to being a kid and playing with the toy size model of the Excavator..... but now I have complete control..... so much fun.
